

A Bedside Prayer.
These beautiful lines were found among the papers of one whose years were spent in loving devotion to his Master's cause.

The day is ending; ere I sink to rest,
My weary spirit seeks repose in Thee;
Father, forgive my trespasses, and keep
This little life of mine.

With loving kindness, Thou my bed,
And cool to rest my burning pilgrim feet;
Thy pardon be the pillow for my head,
So shall my sleep be sweet.

At peace with all the world, dear Lord and Thee,
No fear my soul's unwavering faith can shake
All's well, whichever side the grave for me,
The morning light may break.

Legal Don'ts About Wills.

Don't make a will without three witnesses.
Don't neglect to declare it to be your last will and testament.
Don't let a person interested in it be a witness.
Don't add a codicil unless you execute it in the same way as the original will.
Don't make a new will unless you revoke or destroy the old one.
Don't neglect to make your witnesses write their full names and addresses.
Don't forget that your marriage will invalidate a will already made.
Don't make a new will without specifically revoking the prior one and physically destroy it.
Don't make a will that does not provide for children that may be born.
Don't try to force a wife to accept certain property instead of dower.
Don't try to devise real property to an alien.
Don't leave anything uncertain in a will.
Don't mention people by their nicknames.
Don't fail to specify which one is meant when two bear the same name.
Don't imagine that the contents of a lost will may not be proved by good evidence.
